Have you read the Grants for Groups guidelines? _____ Yes _____ No

1. Briefly explain what you feel God is calling you or your group to do as a service project.

2. Share the process of how you identified this need and what made you consider this a place to serve.

3. What are you trying to accomplish and what need are you hoping to meet?
4. Is there a Coast Hills Ministry or other organization currently meeting this need?
5. How do you see this as an opportunity to share your faith and how does it show Christ's Love to others?
6. Provide a scripture that encourages you in this service project.
7. Share briefly how you will implement this service project.
8. How much grant money do you feel is needed to complete this project? How much money will your group be contributing?

*Please note: This funding is intended to be seed money for what God is calling you to do. The amount funded will be determined by the GFG Team.

9. What specifically will the grant money be used for?

10. What are the start and end dates of your project?

11. Is there any other information you would like to share with us?
